

Overview

Spear Technologies is an exciting new software company in the Insurance sector. Spear is looking for an experienced Power Apps developer to work on its core product.

www.spear-tech.com

Skills needed

- 2 - 4+ years of experience building Enterprise-level solutions utilizing best practices within Model-Driven Power Apps
- Solid understanding of the Power Platform components, including Power BI, Power Automate, Portals AI Builder and Virtual Agents
- Experience developing PCF controls for Power Apps
- Strong programming skills in C# and Javascript
- Experience with PowerApps integration with Azure API Apps, Azure Logic apps, Azure Functions and REST services
- Experience developing solutions that span multiple Office365 services (e.g., SharePoint, Outlook, Graph API, One Note, One Drive, etc.)
- Experience working with the Agile methodology and self-starter who can thrive in a dynamic environment
- Strong interpersonal and communications skills and ability to multi-task effectively between projects

Degrees and Certifications

- B.S. in Computer Science, engineering, or related technical discipline (Extensive, directly applicable experience may substitute for the academic degree requirement)
- Training and/or certification for PowerApps Professional or PowerApps Developer
- Training and/or certification for Microsoft Flow/Power Automate

Optional / Nice to have skills

- Experience using XRM Tools
- JavaScript experience with XRM WebAPI
- Experience working with Business Central
- Knowledge of insurance claims
- Datalakes / data warehousing
- Paginated reports with PowerBI
- Document Management experience in PowerApps
- Azure Storage (Blobs)
- PowerApps security configuration

Benefits

- Competitive salary contingent on experience
- Healthcare, Dental, Vision
- Great PTO
- Work remotely – no commute